

APRIL IS FAIR HOUSING MONTH AND

National Community Development Week is April 8-14

The Human Relations Division of Neighborhood Improvement
Services and the Department of Community Development presents:

Affirmatively Furthering Fair Housing Seminar

Wednesday, April 4, 2012

10:00 – 11:30 AM

Golden Belt Building

807 East Main Street, Suite 2-300

Durham, N.C. 27701

Topics presented will include:

- What does "Affirmatively Furthering Fair Housing" (AFFH) mean?
- What must local governments do to meet their obligations?
- What other entities must meet these requirements?
- What are the consequences of failing to meet AFFH requirements?
- Who can I contact for help?

Who Should Attend?

- Government Employees, including Grant Managers, Administrators
- Community/Economic Development Professionals and Staff
- Recipients of Federal Funding (CDBG, HOME, ESG, NSP etc.)
- Affordable Housing Developers
- Housing Advocates

Presenter: Jack Holtzman, Project Director, Fair Housing Project, Legal Aid of North Carolina

To register, contact Juanita English at Juanita.English@durhamnc.gov or 919-560-1647 x34279

This is a free seminar. Please RSVP by March 30, 2012

This seminar is funded in part through a grant under the Fair Housing Assistance Program and the Fair Housing Initiatives Program with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

